

English GCSE

As of February 2022, AQA have released additional information pertaining to your GCSE examinations. Your examinations have changed in the following ways:

GCSE English Literature

AQA have allowed schools to drop one of their literature texts. We will no longer be studying Power and Conflict Poetry, and instead only studying:

- Macbeth
- A Christmas Carol
- An Inspector Calls
- Unseen poetry

GCSE English Language

We have received no additional information regarding English Language Paper 1. The advanced information from AQA for English Language Paper 2 is as follows:

- Source A will be an example of 21st century autobiographical writing
- Source B will be a 19th century essay
- You will be asked to write an article for your writing question (Question 5)
