22nd October 2018

Dear Parents and Carers

I am writing to let you know that Ofsted will be conducting a monitoring visit at The Ripley Academy on Tuesday 23rd October and Wednesday 24th October. I have spoken to students about this today.

The focus of this monitoring visit will be the pupils' behaviour and attitudes to learning as well as the quality of the schools' teaching, assessment and pastoral care.

Our students' conduct and attitude at our last visit was exemplary, and I am confident that they, along with our staff, will continue to show the school at its best during this inspection.

Although this is not a full inspection but a monitoring visit, you are invited to complete Ofsted's Parent View survey on the following website <https://parentview.ofsted.gov.uk/>.

I will write to you in due course with the outcome of the visit.

With my very best wishes

Yours sincerely

Lisa Walton
