5th March 2024

To Parents and Carers,

We are thrilled to be celebrating Neurodiversity Week from the 18th – 24th March at The Ripley Academy. As part of these celebrations, we are really keen to invite parents and carers into school so that they can meet and share experiences, they can talk to the brilliant learning support team about what we offer as a school and so that you can visit the environment that your young person is in during the school day.

With this in mind, we are holding a coffee morning on Friday 22nd March at 10am for parents and carers who have children with special educational needs or for parents/carers who have concerns about their child’s development. As part of this morning – where light refreshments will be available - we have the NeuroHub, who are based in Ripley, in school to deliver a short presentation and to provide opportunities for a Q&A session. The NeuroHub are a relatively new, fantastic service who provide support to families with neurodivergent children and can signpost to lots of other excellent services in the local area.

We really hope that you will be able to join us in celebrating Neurodiversity Week and we look forward to seeing you in school.

With my very best wishes,

Mrs S Robinson-Kent
Assistant Headteacher
