The Ripley Academy

Report Grading Information

Grade	Attitude to learning	Behaviour	Homework
Remarkable	• Completes all work to a consistently high standard. • Can work independently and always embraces challenges. • Always responds positively to questions and feedback. • Arrives prepared for every lesson with the correct equipment.	• Consistently demonstrates exemplary behaviour. • Has a positive impact on the learning of others. • Actively engages in every lesson. • Acts as a positive role model to others. • Seeks challenge.	• Submits all homework on time. • Produces excellent quality homework.
Committed	• Completes all work set. • Works well at the expected level. • Acts on feedback from the teacher and responds to questions when asked. • Arrives prepared for lessons with the correct equipment.	• Stays focused on learning. • Follows the behaviour policy in every lesson. • Has a positive impact on the learning of others. • Responds positively to challenge.	• Completes all homework. • Produces homework to a good standard.
Coasting	• Attempts the work set. • Works towards meeting the expected level. • Teacher feedback is not always acted on and sometimes does not respond to questions. • Sometimes arrives at lessons without basic equipment.	• Needs reminders about the behaviour policy. • Can be involved in low level disruption or can be passive. • Usually responds positively to reminders from the teacher.	• Homework is sometimes handed in late. • Homework is sometimes rushed or incomplete.
Reluctant	• Classwork is often incomplete. • Frequently works below the expected level. • Teacher feedback is rarely acted on and does not always respond to questions when asked. • Frequently arrives at lessons without basic equipment.	• Frequently disrupts the learning in lessons. • Their behaviour can have a negative impact on the learning of others. • Does not always respond positively to reminders from the teacher.	• Homework deadlines are not met. • Homework shows a lack of effort and is often incomplete.